Task :

- You need to create two APIs one for registration and other for logging in the user

- Email and password of the user should be stored in the database.

- Passwords should be encrypted before storing in the database.

Note:

Use only Django.

Please do not ask for more directions – with these instructions we would like you to do the best implementation as possible. Use obvious assumptions.